- ◆ Students who choose to rent the house by themselves need to provide the rental address.

◆ Others

- i. Food : Student cafeteria is located at the basement of dormitory. There are also many restaurants, cafés and bistros within walking distance around campus.
- ii. Clothing: Coin laundry is also located at the basement of dormitory.
- iii. Transportation: Parking areas for bikes and scooters are arranged in periphery of campus. City bus stop is in front of the back gate. (To ride a scooter, a driver's license is required.)
- iv. Internet : All rooms in the dormitory are facilitated with internet connection.
- v. Insurance: Students must enroll in the National Health Insurance program after a continuous residence within Taiwan for six months. (NTD 749/ per month).
- vi. Language Course: Center of Chinese Language provides free Chinese courses for exchange students.

7. Visa application

- i. A foreign passport holder shall enter Taiwan with a valid visitor or a resident visa according to the different purpose of visit. (<https://www.boca.gov.tw/np-137-2.html>)
 - ◆ Visitor Visa: Short-term visa for the expected length of stay within 180 days.
Usually the validity of visitor visa is 60 days, and it can be extended twice.
 - ◆ Resident Visa: Long-term visa for the expected length of stay more than 180 days.
- ii. For visa extension, students must go to the local service office of National Immigration Agency 15 days before the expiration. We suggest that students who stay over one semester should apply for a resident visa before entering Taiwan, and then apply for ARC after their arrival. Changing a visitor visa to a resident visa before applying for ARC will cost more.

◆ Alien Resident Certificate (ARC)

Students who enter Taiwan with a Resident Visa must apply for ARC at the local service center of National Immigration Agency within 15 days after arrival. With ARC, students can open a bank account and must join National Health Insurance Program.
